

Call for Papers: International Symposium on Artificial Intelligence
Computing & Communication (AICom2)

The International Symposium on Artificial Intelligence Computing and Communication (AICom2) invites researchers, academics, and industry professionals to submit original papers on AI and communication technologies. This Symposium aims to showcase cutting-edge research, foster collaboration, and address challenges in AI-driven computation and communication systems.

AICom2 will explore the future of AI-driven communication and contribute to innovative solutions for a connected world with special interest in but not limited to:

- AI & Machine Learning: Deep learning, reinforcement learning, explainable AI.
- Communication Systems: AI-enabled 5G/6G, cognitive radio, SDN, network slicing.
- Edge Computing & IoT: Edge intelligence, IoT security, real-time AI applications.
- Security & Privacy: AI-based threat detection, privacy-preserving AI, blockchain integration.
- Applications: Smart cities, healthcare, transportation, multimedia.

- Emerging Trends: Quantum AI, green AI, AI ethics, future communication research.

Submission Guidelines:

- Format: Submissions should be formatted according to the Springer Proceedings guidelines. Authors are encouraged to use the LaTeX template provided by Springer for manuscripts containing mathematical content. Word templates are also available for those who prefer to submit in Word format.
- Length: Papers should be no longer than 10 pages, including references and appendices. Additional charges will be applied for extra pages.
- Publication: Accepted papers will be published in the Symposium proceedings by Springer and indexed by major databases including EI Compendex, Web of Science, and Scopus.

Please add "Sym. ACom2: " at the beginning of your paper title.

- Submissions to WASA 2025 are welcome to be redirected to ACom2. Please contact zhuyongxin@sari.ac.cn to provide your WASA submission number and you don't need to submit again.

Important Dates:

- Paper submission: April 1, 2025
- Notification: April 15, 2025
- Registration: May 2, 2025
- Camera Ready: May 2, 2025

Organization Committee:

- General Chair

- Yongxin Zhu, Chinese Academy of Sciences, China

- Program Chair

- Zhihui Lv, Fudan University, China

- Technical Program Committee

- Chundong Wang, ShanghaiTech University, China
- Pandi Vijayakumar, Anna University, India
- Mingsong Chen, East China Normal University, China
- Xianbing Wang, Wuhan University, China
- Xiaoying Zheng, Chinese Academy of Sciences, China
- Cheng Zhang, Waseda University, Japan
